Yuranus Infrastructure Limited is a company that places a high value on transparency and accountability. One of the ways the company demonstrates this commitment is through its regular disclosure of the policy for determining the materiality of events or information required under clause (ii), sub-regulation (4) of regulation 30.

This regulation requires listed companies to disclose any material events or information that could impact the company's operations or financial performance. Yuranus Infrastructure Limited takes this requirement seriously and has implemented a rigorous process to determine the materiality of such events or information.

By disclosing their policy for determining materiality on a regular basis, Yuranus Infrastructure Limited provides stakeholders with the information they need to make informed decisions. This level of transparency helps to build trust and confidence among investors, customers, and other stakeholders.

Yuranus Infrastructure Limited's commitment to transparency and accountability goes beyond just meeting regulatory requirements. The company's regular disclosure of its policy for determining materiality is just one example of its dedication to keeping stakeholders informed and involved in the decision-making process.

Overall, Yuranus Infrastructure Limited's commitment to transparency and accountability sets a strong example for other companies in the industry. By prioritizing the disclosure of material events and information, the company demonstrates its commitment to building long-term relationships with its stakeholders based on trust and openness.
